

Paris Secrète et Gourmande

A word from your guide:
"Paris for me has always been a place full of fascinating secrets and stories. I was born and raised there, and I know it like the back of my hand. Now it's time to share those secrets with you." Géraldine

Departure: April 2020

8 days / 7 nights

Minors welcome

Small guided group leaving San Juan, PR

*Itinerary

Day 1 Bienvenue à Paris !

Departure SJU to Paris.

Transport from Airport to Hotel Mansart or similar.

Day 2 - La Dame de Fer, l'incontournable.

French breakfast at the hotel

Why wait to visit the Iron Matron of Paris? The first stop has to be for her! Departure on the metro to Champs de Mars. We'll skip the long line and go right to the top, or any of the levels, for a proper hello to the city of lights.

Free time

Patisserie and champagne break (because you're worth it) in the Park Hyatt de la Place Vendome where we'll be seduced by the innovative hybrid classical/contemporary French stylings and the phenomenal creations of legendary pastry chef Jimmy Mornet.

Creation by Jimmy Mornet

Day 3 – Belle, c'est un mot inventé pour elle

French breakfast at the hotel

Departure in metro to the Latin Quarter and its historic center La Sorbonne. This famous university has been the stomping grounds of such giants as Diderot and Voltaire. Each of the areas narrow Roman era streets has a story to tell. We arrive at the plaza in front of Notre Dame.

Free time

Patisserie y champagne break at 1 T. This traditional Parisian haunt is the place where the brothers Lumiere (fathers of the moving picture) famously premiered their cinematograph, predecessor to the modern film projector. To this day it remains a favorite spot among Parisians.

Day 4 – Un champion du Monde.

French breakfast at the hotel

Departure on foot to the Louvre; that romantic walk that all Parisians have done time and again. The Rivoli Quarter invites us into its stunning embrace with a walk through its jardin des tuileries.

Patisserie and champagne break in Le Dali. The name is no coincidence, Salvador Dali was a regular of the establishment and this extravagant room has become a homage to him. And not only will the sight of it take your breath away, it's also home to Cedric Grolet, winner World's Best Pastry Chef 2018

La pausa "tea-time" salón del Dali

Day 5 – Nez, c'est ma profession

French breakfast at the hotel

Departure on foot between the quaint streets of Paris to the Museum of Perfume. We will receive instruction on the art of perfume making and by the end of the short course, each make a perfume of our own design

Free time

Departure to Sacré Coeur cathedral, the highest point in Paris, to take in the views of the city, and also visit the chambers of the cathedral. Out of respect for ongoing prayer this visit inside the church will be in total silence. However, if you have a smartphone and earbuds with you can download and listen to a private guided tour of the wonders of this centuries old temple without disrupting the peace.

Day 6 – Le Brunch Parisien /Breakfast on a Peniche

Mid-morning departure for our 1:30pm Sunday brunch reservations onboard a traditional river boat that gives a different unique of the sites (from the river Seine) while showing your taste buds a decadent time.

In the afternoon we deboard and, back on dry land, we'll try our hand at the work of the masters in a french pastry workshop right in the heart of the capital. Learn the tried and true techniques, sample the real thing and take home your creation.
